Pacific Electric Helps Improve Auto Route.

Mission Inn to Cultivate Garden Patch.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 23.—A surprise was sprung in official circles this morning when A. T. Tuttle, appointed superintendent of streets when Mayor Foster entered upon his second term, was announced to the City Council that he had accepted a position with the county, explaining his action on the ground that he would be leaving the employ of the city at the end of his term, January 1, as this is the date on which Mayor Foster enters upon his second term. It is regarded as one indication that some changes are due to be made among the numerous appointments which it falls to the Mayor to make. Five Chief Inspectors, who have been in office for more than twenty years, is the only appointive department head remaining who was in office two years ago.

IMPROVE AUTO ROUTE.
Southern California motorists will have with pleasure the working out of an agreement between the city and the Pacific Electric Railway Company whereby steps can be taken for the paving of the last remaining unpaved link in Magnolia avenue.

That portion of the 194-foot highway known as Magnolia avenue extension, which brought the famous avenue up to the heart of the city, two miles in length, has only been improved throughout half its length. The remaining mile, according to the resolution of intention adopted this morning, will be improved with two sixteen-foot driveways. The Pacific Electric will maintain its present tracks within a twenty-two-foot parking space to be provided in the center of the avenue, and will remove its center pole line and install at the curb line. The railway company will co-operate in the improvement to the extent of $10,000, or one-third of the estimated cost.

RAISE THEIR PRODUCE.
The Glenswood Hotel Company has decided to adopt the policy of growing its own vegetables and has acquired for land on Magnolia avenue on which will be raised all the vegetables required by the hotel. The price of farm products has reached an altitude, the management believes, which justifies the company's decision to go into the raising business. Mrs. Miller, wife of the master of the inn, is a pastime, on it is to be raised among the winter guests in the art of growing artichokes, for it is known that when the hotel calls for that delicious home place is drawn upon to furnish the vegetable.

THE PAPER ON THE WALL.

How to Put Oneself on Living Terms with the Decorations.

Many people who live in rented houses are enduring wall paper which is an eyesore to them because of its color and design or because it does not harmonize with their draperies and decorations.

If the wall paper is of light tones it can be tinted at little expense by applying a coat of special kalsomine. If the old paper is firm on the walls it can be made to look fresh and new by this process. Any figures in the paper will, of course, be visible but they will be in the same tone as the background, giving a harmonious two-toned effect. Before undertaking it, a test should be made on a piece of similar paper to be sure that the desired color will take well. An ordinary whitewash brush is the only tool required.

If the wall paper is satisfactory in color but soiled it can be readily cleaned by the use of one of the wallpaper cleaners on the market. These are of a material of a doughy consistency which is rubbed in long quick strokes across the paper, usually bringing away an incredible amount of soil and grime. With the present high cost of materials and labor, it is well to experiment with a can of cleaner before going to the expense and trouble of repapering.

Where there are spots that are only slightly soiled they can often be removed by rubbing lightly with waste bread. If the wall paper is scratched it can be repaired to defy detection if you have a scrap of similar paper saved. Moisten this, scrape off the coloring with a pen knife and carefully apply to the scratched spot. When dry the mark will not be noticeable. Should the marred place be too large to hide this way, a patch can be successfully applied by tearing the paper in an irregular patch. If carefully pasted this irregular tear will blend with the old paper and escape detection in a manner impossible where the edges of the patch are out.

ECONOMY IN FATS.

With the present prices of butter, lard, and all fats, fried foods are almost a luxury, but there are some simple suggestions that aid in the saving of fats for frying.

Great care is required to keep fat in good condition. The first requirement is that the moment you have finished frying you should set the kettle back in a cooler place. Do not let it cook on the hot burner after you have removed the food.

If the fat which has been used in frying does become overheated and dark, put it in a stewpan with quite a quantity of water and heat to the boiling point, then pour into a larger pan and add cold water. Set in a cold place and when the fat has formed in a cake on the top of the water take it off and put into the frying pan. Heat gently and cook until it has ceased to bubble and then partially cool and strain. As long as the fat bubbles there is water in it and it will not be satisfactory for frying purposes so long as the water remains.

If fat goes too far before you are ready to use it for frying, put in a handful of raw, sliced potatoes. If there is a good deal of foreign substance in it, add two or three raw potatoes cut in slices. When cool, but still liquid, strain through cheesecloth.

When frying fish, egg plant, or any watery substance it will usually be found that after the second use has been cooked the fat will be filled with bubbles and will no longer fry the food crisp and brown. Then it should be heated gently until every particle of water has evaporated.

In all kitchens there is a certain amount of fats which can be made use of in some way. All the fat from beef, veal, pork and chicken can be used in cooking. It should be rendered carefully, not heated to too high a temperature. Strain through cheesecloth and use for frying.

The fat from bacon, ham and sausage is particularly suited for frying potatoes, hominy and starchy foods.

The fat from mutton, lamb or turkey is too strongly flavored to be satisfactory for use in cooking. It is excellent material for home-made soap.

All fats used for frying should be thoroughly clarified. To clarify fat, keep it at a gentle heat until there is not a trace of smoke or soot. If the fat has fallen to the bottom, leaving a clear oil, strain this and keep in a dry, cool place.

CONSERVING TIME

IN HOUSE RUNNING.

One reason why women have found it so difficult to secure equal pay for equal work when working with men, is that the home-keeping women have never taken into account the money value of their labor. A woman works from twelve to fourteen hours in her own household and rarely stops to ask herself, "How much an hour is my time worth, and being worth so much money an hour, how can I obtain the best results for the expenditure?" The high wages asked and obtained for domestic service have brought this question to the fore with many housewives. They are seeing that with general housework demands ranging from $12 to $15 a week, with or without board and room, it makes the time of a woman who does her own work worth at least $2 a day. Soon, a basis of dollars and cents alone, excluding all questions of health and strength, it behooves the housewife to economize time so highly paid for.

Vacuum cleaners and carpet sweepers are invaluable aids about the house. Washing machines help out the laundry work. But it is in the kitchen after all that the real time and effort saving must be made. Every hour of each day pots and pans must be lifted, must be filled and must be cleaned. The weight of one utensil lifted once may not seem much, but lifted twenty times a day it counts up. To have lightness in weight combined with ease in cleaning means a saving in hours in the course of a week and that means a saving in dollars.

PREPARING THE HOLIDAY POULTRY.

Holiday feasting seems to demand poultry. Many forget economy for one day in the year and have their turkey, goose, duck or chicken, regardless of expense. Having got it let us make the most of it, and not only the most of this particular specimen of the poultry yard but of any others we may have from time to time. To do this our turkey or chicken must be cooked in the most perfect manner possible that none of its virtues may be wasted. The old fashioned method of broasting such watching of the oven and much handling of the bird. Now all that is made easy by the enameled ware roaster, with having a tight-fitting cover does its own broasting. After the fowl is prepared, place it in the roaster, and the oven kept at the proper heat, the housewife has nothing more to do until she removes it to place triumphantly on the festive board. Even a turkey or goose inclined to be tough will become tender cooked in this way—it even needs the youth of the toughest fowl. Another useful enameled ware utensil at this season is the steam stand-by, the preserving kettle. An old fat hen, past her laying days, will be made into very delicious substitutes for high-priced market poultry by being boiled in such a kettle. Put in water enough to keep from scorching. Cover the kettle very tightly and let the hen steam in it. An entire sauce and oyster stuffing will be found to be very good with this way of serving chicken.

THINGS TO KNOW.

Buena shoes that are shiny with wear can be freshened by rubbing with sand paper.

Smelling salts convenient to carry in the handbag are made in the shape of capsules covered with crocheted silk. They must be crushed in order to give out the fragrance, but the silk prevents spilling.

A gift for the man of the house is a pair of leather slippers with a traveling case for them.

Remove stains on tiled floors by rubbing with a solution of two parts of water to one part of oxalic acid.

A weekly sprinkling in the bathtub should be given winter house plants to keep them from any dust.

A device to help the memory in mailing letters is a burlap bag marked "mail" in red-stitch, hanging right beside the front door where it cannot miss the eye of the person going out.

To save your hand-painted vase from toppling over, pour a small quantity of melted paraffin over a handful of shot or any other weights. This can be removed if necessary by placing in hot water.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Baking tins should be washed as clean as possible with a strong solution of soda, and then scoured with a piece of pumice stone. This will keep them in excellent condition.

Pecan nuts can be shelled easily if the nuts are put for a few minutes in boiling water. This softens the shell and makes it quite possible to remove the meat without difficulty.

RECIPES FOR CHRISTMAS DAY.

Christmas Pudding.—Two and one-half cups fine bread crumbs, one cup brown sugar, one-half cup chopped suet, one cup milk, one teaspoon chopped citron, one-half cup chopped raisins, one-half cup molasses, one-half cup flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one ounce chopped nuts (any kind), one teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon cinnamon. Mix well together and steam three to three and one-half hours serve with any good sauce.

Roast Turkey.—Turkey, salt and pepper, dry bread, flour for gravy, chestnuts, oysters or sage, a sprig of butter, hot water.

Wash turkey thoroughly. Rub inside and out with salt and pepper. Then stuff with any preferred dressing. Sew up opening; tie legs and wings to body and place in roaster. Turn down, in this way all the fine flavoring of the turkey and the juice of the dressing flow down to the breast of the fowl, making the white meat sweet, juicy and most delicious.

Chicken Salad.—Four and one-half cups of chicken, celery, mayonnaise, one-half cup shelled pecans, hard-boiled eggs, capers, parsley or celery tops, salt and paprika.

Select a good, plump fowl, clean and disjoint and put to cook in boiling water; boil five minutes and then simmer for two or three hours, with one bay leaf, a dozen cloves and a small onion. When the chicken is tender, cool in the liquor. Remove the skin and with the shears cut the meat in half-inch cubes or pieces, and an equal amount of celery, the latter having stood in ice water for an hour and then wind

dry. Marinate with a French dressing. Just before serving, drain, mix well with mayonnaise dressing, to which has been added one-third whipped cream, pour in the nuts without breaking. Pile in a salad dish, garnish with the hard-boiled eggs forced through the potato ricer alternating with rows of white and yellow of egg and capers, with here and there parsley or celery tips to finish the garnish. Lettuce may be used, but it gives it a much stiffer appearance. This makes an excellent supper salad; use any left-over chicken.

Sausages and Celery.—Prick as many small sausages as desired so they will not burst in the cooking. Put in the blazer. Pour on them a quarter cup of boiling water. Cover and cook until the water is all evaporated. Uncover and brown, adding a little butter or bacon fat if necessary. Two or three minutes before they are done add two table-spoonsful of chopped celery and stirred. Cook just long enough to be tender, but not to lose the taste of fresh celery. Serve on slices of brown bread or toast.

Putted Oysters.—Line small buttered baking dishes with boiled rice, seasoned well with salt, pepper and butter. Cook just long enough to be tender, but not to lose the taste of fresh celery. Serve on slices of brown bread or toast.

dry. Marinate with a French dressing. Just before serving, drain, mix well with mayonnaise dressing, to which has been added one-third whipped cream, pour in the nuts without breaking. Pile in a salad dish, garnish with the hard-boiled eggs forced through the potato ricer alternating with rows of white and yellow of egg and capers, with here and there parsley or celery tips to finish the garnish. Lettuce may be used, but it gives it a much stiffer appearance. This makes an excellent supper salad; use any left-over chicken.

Sausages and Celery.—Prick as many small sausages as desired so they will not burst in the cooking. Put in the blazer. Pour on them a quarter cup of boiling water. GOOD ON FUR THIEF.

MAN WITH A HUSKY TELEPHONE VOICE RETURNS IT ON ARREST THREAT.

A mysterious man with husky voice yesterday brought about the return of a fur valued at $2000, stolen from the Unique Fur Company, at 725 South Broadway, and by returning the fur proved that he was a detective.

Nick Harris, head of the Harris Detective Agency, is able to bluff. The fur was stolen from the Unique Fur Company, at 725 South Broadway, and by returning the fur proved that he was a detective.

Early yesterday a man telephoned to Mr. Harris and stated that he was in a position to return the fur but would have to be advanced $500. "I don't have to do business with you," said Mr. Harris to the husky voice on the telephone. "I know who stole the fur and am going to place the whole bunch under arrest. If you know anything you had better come across and save your own hide." Then he hung up.

Yesterday afternoon the same husky voice again called Mr. Harris and this is what it said: "Go to the bank at Third street and Broadway. You will find the missing fur done up in a newspaper on a seat in the rear of the bank lobby."

Mr. Harris went over to the bank and there was the fur.

HAD TOO MANY GIRLS FOR HER.

Heirs Wins Divorce from a "Loving" Engineer.

She Comforted One; Another Took Poison, it Seems.

Posed as Both Single and Divorced, Wife Says.

Mrs. Martha G. Brown, who has an income of $150 a month from a trust fund of $50,000, told Judge Craig yesterday that she tried to comfort one of the young girls to whom her husband, Hugh E. Brown, an engineer, made love as a single man. This girl was a "dear, sweet, little thing," she said, adding that she called on her.

One girl to whom Mr. Brown paid attention took poison, Mrs. Brown testified, and was seriously ill as a result of the drug. Mr. Brown in this instance, the testimony showed, posed as a divorced man.

Attorney H. W. Elliott, counsel for Mrs. Brown, introduced a number of letters that she stated she gave to Mr. Brown. One letter read that "Your letter has been delivered to me by your maid, and she confide his kindness to his wife and child."

"Make your life a new thing; let your one big object be to make your wife and child happy; be pure in heart and true to them," the letter read.

The writer admitted she was not without blame, "for I trusted you as a child. Therefore, I will try harder than ever to live right. This has been a great lesson. Be sincere to her. She will not return to Peking until after these meetings."

William Humphrey, of W. G. Humphrey & Co., Hongkong, was among the guests at the luncheon. He is one of the leading exporters and importers of the Orient.

BLIND BOGEY GOLF BOUTS.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

DEL MONTE, Dec. 23.—Walls against the handicapper have ever been echoed over golf courses during the course of tournaments. The handicapper's path has not been strewn with roses and few of the players have realized his troubles in estimating the correct number of strokes that the competitors should receive.

BLIND BOGEY.

So, in order to bring some of the trials and tribulations of the handicapper some bright mind thought up the scheme of "blind bogey competition." Blind bogey consists of making a number between 10 and 15 for men and 14 and 16 for women will be drawn from a hat and kept secret. The players handicap themselves. They must figure on giving themselves the right number of strokes to get within the winning numbers.

The blind bogey is very popular at Del Monte. One of them will be run off on Christmas Day. Players will come to Del Monte golf course from all sections of the country and the handicapper has a job in getting a line on their abilities in order to give correct handicaps. Making the players their own handicappers solved the problem.

For next Sunday an 18-hole medal play competition at handicap will be contested at Del Monte to amuse the golfers who will remain over from Christmas until the big year tournament, January 1 to 4.

MANAGER WARES TOLD MUST SECURE WAIVERS.

PRESIDENT OF P.C.L. RULES THAT SALES OF PLAYERS WAS OUT OF ORDER.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 23.—Manager Clyde Wares of the Seattle club of the Pacific Coast Baseball League must secure waivers from the other Coast League managers before his sale of Jimmy Walsh, outfielder, to Akron, O., and Ed Sweeney, catcher, to Kansas City, will be allowed, William H. McCarthy, president of the league, ruled here today.

Wares was notified of the ruling today. The local men are doubtful of victory over the red men, as the high school team has had but little time to practice, but they are resolved to put up a game battle, well worth seeing, and it is expected that the revival of the old custom of a Christmas game with the Indians will draw a big attendance of baseball fans from far and near.

Tomorrow's coach plans to definitely announce the remainder of the team positions, there being many aspirants all eager for a chance to put the Indian sign on the Red. A half-dozen youths are competing for the outfield berths and it is conjectured that final choice will not be made by the coach until the morning of the game. The game will be called at 1:30 on Christmas afternoon.

Now that waivers have been asked by the Reds on the veteran, Sherwood Magee, it is said he may manage a class AA club.

He is survived by a wife and children. Living here are brothers and sisters who are now en route from El Paso, Tex., with the expectation of being finally reunited here on Christmas Day.

COAST BASEBALL NOTES.

Outfielder Duncan of St. Paul probably will play with Portland the coming season. Mike Kelley has offered Duncan in exchange for Outfielder Walker, who quit the St. Paul team last season because of a slight disagreement with the management over a doctor bill. If Walker will agree to report to St. Paul the trade will be put through.

Bill Goodman's judgment appears to be vindicated. Goodman, who "discovered" Wes Kingston, the local high school boy who finished up the season at short with Portland, has contended all along that second base is the youngster's natural position. And it certainly looked that way Sunday when Kingston played in that position against Babe Ruth's team. He played simply phenomenal ball in the field. He looked 10 per cent better than at short. If Mac is wise, as everybody alleges him to be, he will agree to moving him to stop and cease to worry about second base for next season.

Walter McCredie has just purchased a home in the suburbs of Portland, with a garage and everything. It was built by a Portland skin specialist who never inhabited St. Mac paid $10,000 for the place, and then proved incontinent by buying a Ford to go with it. The Ford is too small to match the garage, and Mac has not yet figured out a way to remedy the defect.

The idea seems not yet dreamed Bobby Meusel's hitting as accurate weight with idea of speed. Meusel never looked better than in Sunday's exhibition, when he cracked out a double and triple and a home run, all in one inning, and speed which is peculiar to him.

STAR AND KIN IN CRASH.

Auto; Actress Hurt; Parents may Die.

Plunged in Wreck. Killed Out by Police.

Man Lay Collision to the Fast Driving.

Mr. de la Motte, 35 years of age, was driving a 1918 Ford touring car, and his wife, Mrs. de la Motte, 41, were very much excited and their daughter, Mrs. de la Motte, 18 years of age, was sitting in the front seat. The car was traveling on the Pacific coast highway at Cahuenga avenue.

Victims of Hold-up in Own Home by Daring Bandit. George Bedoya, 17, a freshman at U.C.L., and Hilario Parades, the maid.

ROBS FAMILY OF RICH MAN.

The daring hold-up almost an hour later, when notified by one of the maids, arrived too late to attempt any search for the bandit whose description was given as American, 22 years of age, 1 feet 10 inches, 150 pounds and wore a light brown suit and a dark cap. The white mask, the maids say, was a handkerchief.

ASSISTANTS ON GUARD.

Police detectives are convinced, after questioning the neighbors, that the man did not operate alone. A mysterious automobile containing three men was seen in the neighborhood a short time before the hold-up and was driven away shortly after the bandit left the house. The police think the man who entered the mansion had assistants placed about it to prevent the escape of any of the persons in the dwelling.

According to George Bedoya and the two maids the man seemed to be at ease during the entire hold-up and stated that he was not alone. When he threw down the diamonds he declared he was "only looking for cash and not for jewelry."

Jose Bedoya arrived in this city about January 1 last from Peru. He is the owner of a large cotton mill and a shoe factory there. He is also an official of the Engineering Sales Corporation of 1111 South Grand avenue. He brought his family to this country to complete the education of his children in American schools. The children have had American tutors and governesses all their lives. George is said to be the youngest freshman at the University of Southern California. Gabrielle is a student at the Immaculate Heart girls' school on West Pico street. The two maids were brought here from Peru and do not speak English. The family will return to Peru as soon as the children's education is completed. Mr. Bedoya resided last night. According to George Bedoya, his father and mother left their residence yesterday afternoon on a Christmas shopping tour.

The derrick is to be erected on a pier which will extend 100 feet out to sea, near the foot of Carolina avenue, San Pedro. A map showing the location of the proposed pier is now on exhibition in the U. S. Engineer's office, Central Building.

KISSLESS ONE HUGGED HARD.

Says Arid Osculatory Period Followed by Too Tropical Warmth.

Harrison Moore, whose bride, Mabel Moore, was kissless until he returned from the army, was given a divorce by Judge Valentine yesterday on the ground of extreme cruelty. The Moore resided near Whittier. Mr. Moore left for the army the day following his marriage, the agreement being that she would remain kissless until he returned.

She declared on the stand that his conduct since his discharge from the army humiliated her and that he hugged her. He denied her charge that army life corrupted him.

Southland too Attractive to be Spoiled, He Asserts.

Tells Realty Board How New License Law will Work.

Ray L. Riley, real estate commissioner of California, and Tom Ingersoll, secretary of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, yesterday addressed the Los Angeles Realty Board at a Christmas luncheon at the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Commissioner Riley, who will open his Los Angeles office in the Union League Building on January 1, outlined the operation of the new real estate license law, declaring it to be the most important legislation enacted in California in many years.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Review of Conditions; Christmas Fixin's are Cheaper.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

CHRISTMAS EATS WILL COST LESS.

The Christmas turkey is less expensive than was the Thanksgiving bird. Fresh dressed turkey, which at Thanksgiving time sold at prices ranging from 57 to 60 cents per pound, are to be offered today around 55 cents per pound. The quality is comparable to that of the November crop.

Since Thanksgiving the market prices have come down for some of the other holiday specialties, also. Fancy grade celery can now be bought at prices ranging from 18 to 25 cents per stalk, while many of the retailers are selling good celery at 20 cents, or two for 35 cents. Fine, large heads of cauliflower were displayed in the grocery stores and market stalls, yesterday at 20 and 25 cents per head, as compared with 35 cents at Thanksgiving. Firm, well-headed lettuce is bringing an average price of 10 cents each, with smaller heads selling two for 15 cents. The same grade was selling at Thanksgiving time for about 17 1/2 cents per head. Sweet peas, have remained firm at 20 cents per pound.

The ruling prices for soft shell almonds, is about 35 cents; Brazil nuts, 40 cents; walnuts from 25 to 40 cents; hickory nuts 20 cents, and mixed nuts 20 cents per pound. Fresh extra eggs recorded the biggest drop in weeks yesterday when the produce exchange quotation went from 65 to 61 cents. This will establish a retail price of about 65 cents. Case count eggs declined from 61 to 60 cents a dozen, wholesale, from 21 to 20 cents, wholesale, remained firm at 61 cents, wholesale.

It was said that J. F. Sartori, president of the Security Trust and Savings Bank, and Stoddard Jew, president of the First National Bank, would announce during the week that they had received with warm approbation by Los Angeles bankers.

The Stock Market. The pre-holiday calm fastened itself more securely upon the local exchange yesterday and business was at a low ebb. The undertone was good, and while a general softness was manifest there were no signs of consequence, while some of the listings were exceedingly robust. Notably Republic Petroleum, which was in good demand at 24 cents, 9 points above par. The other oils were in fair shape. Union Pacific, a point over the Monday closing, selling at $37. There was some movement in Jags at 18 1/2, United was as uneasy as a crowed head, opening at 84 cents, followed by a spectacular decline to a morning close of 80 cents and a post-meridian rally to a close at 82 cents, a net loss of the day's transactions of a point. Los Angeles Investment was strong at par, and Goodyear registered sales at $9. Southern California Edison was shaded half a point from Monday and sold at $17.50. A few of the minor mining stocks were involved in the story trading, and the leaders were strong but inactive. Tom Reed at $1.67 and United Eastern at $4.05 bid and no stock offered for less than $4.10. There was little doing in bonds and the market showed no noticeable signs of the night before Christmas. After today the exchange will remain closed until next Monday morning.

CHRISTMAS

WHAT A CONSCIOUSNESS!
Not alone a natal day, but the inspiration of peace objectified, wherein real peace as it should be—freed of selfishness—was first made a reality and became the standard of Christendom.

We possess the Christmas consciousness as we have learned to possess of Love. God-born, it seeks of us more understanding at each call, and seeking, leaves a mile post to mark our progress thru experience.

Christmas establishes the principle of daily life. It is the beginning of all reality. Starting as a period of readjustment, its influence never ends, but grows in meaning, and the day will come when all mankind shall know the progress in that command, "... Good will to Men."

Second Financial and Market Page NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE FINANCIAL AND TRADE REVIEW.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—Money was almost the sole influence over today's stagnant and wavering stock market, call loans rising to 14 per cent, the highest level in several weeks, while time funds were virtually unobtainable at the quoted rates of 7-14 to 7-12 per cent.

Some encouragement was offered by development in the domestic industrial situation, the Anaconda copper dividend rate being maintained, notwithstanding misgivings to the contrary, while the usual "extra" dividend was declared on Central Leather. Equipments were steady to firm on prospective contracts from foreign sources.

Extreme reactions of 1 to 2 points in oil, motors and steels were treacherously retrieved in the last half hour, when money relaxed from its main-tenance quotation and short covering set in among industrials, notably

The Mexican Petroleum Company has recently closed important contracts with the M. K. and T. Railroad, with the Emergency Fleet Corporation, with the copper companies in Arizona and New Mexico and with South American Railroads. The British-Mexican Petroleum Company, one-half of which is owned by the Federal Government, is establishing distributing stations in Great Britain, Holland and Scandinavia, and has contracted for large quantities of oil delivery to begin in 1920. The Mexican Petroleum management is said to expect the sale of 10,000,000 shares of oil delivery to begin in 1920. The profit of from $2 to $3 cents per barrel, means upwards of $25,000,000, $45 per share, for Mexican Petroleum common stock.

Comparison of market values with the Mexican Petroleum Company in-cludes a value of $400 per share for Mexican Petroleum com-mon, or approximately, with cer-tain, the common stock of the Pan-American Company. It is understood that the American has recently ac-quired leases on extensive acreage in choice parts of the new Homer, La., field, where Mr. Dehney is re-ported to be taking a 25 per cent share of the 25,000 acre tract, which is being offered to stockholders at the sub-scription price.
